4. Extensions

4.1. Additional Death Benefit

If death is insured, the Insurer will in addition to the cover provided by this Policy pay an amount of R25 000 in respect of an Insured Person who has died as a result of Accidental Bodily Injury covered in terms of this Policy. This Extension does not apply to Juvenile and / or Junior Competitors.

4.2. Abduction, Hi-jacking, Kidnapping

If there is an unlawful seizure or wrongful exercise of control of any aircraft or conveyance (including the crew thereof) in which the Insured Person is travelling, or if the Insured Person is abducted or kidnapped, the cover in terms of this Policy shall continue in force for the duration of such an occurrence, or 12 months from the date of such occurrence, whichever is the lesser period.

If Temporary Total Disability is insured, the Insurers will regard the hi-jacking, abduction or kidnapping of an Insured Person as a claim for Temporary Total Disability, provided that

- 4.2.1. the Insurers' liability is limited to the period of abduction, hi-jacking or kidnapping or eight weeks, whichever is the lesser
- 4.2.2. no compensation shall be payable if any member of the Insured Person's immediate family is involved in the hi-jacking, abduction or kidnapping as a principal or accessory.

4.3. Child Care

In the event of Accidental Bodily Injury to an Adult Competitor resulting in disability, and which, in turn results in the requirement for additional regular care and attendance of the Insured Persons children, then, Insurers will pay to the Insured Person R200 per day during the period of such disability, provided that Insurers will

- 4.3.1. not be liable for the first eight days of each and every claim;
- 4.3.2. only be liable for a period not longer than 28 days in respect of each and every claim and only be liable for a maximum of R10 000 in any one period of Insurance, irrespective of the number of children the Insured Person has;
- 4.3.3. not be liable for any claim in respect of a child who has attained the age of 16 years;
- 4.3.4. only be liable if continuous treatment and attendance by a qualified registered medical practitioner is necessary for the condition rendering the Insured Person disabled;
- 4.3.5. only be liable if the child / children are permanently resident with the Insured Person as at the time of the Accident.

4.4. Claim Preparation Costs

This Policy extends to include costs reasonably incurred by the Insured in producing and certifying any particulars of a claim, provided that the maximum liability of the insurer shall not exceed the amount of R50 000 in respect of any one Insured Person each and every claim.

4.5. Crime

If there is a valid claim for Death or Permanent Disability (where the percentage of compensation is 100), as a result of Crime, the Insurers will pay an additional 5% of the compensation payable for such Death or Permanent Total Disability, provided that:

- 4.5.1. crime, as used in this extension, shall mean any actual or attempted hijack, criminal assault, rape, murder, kidnapping, armed robbery or arson reported to the police and given a case number
- 4.5.2. the maximum liability of the insurer shall not exceed the amount R25 000 any on insured persons each and every claim

4.6. Disappearance

In the event of the disappearance of an Insured Person following upon an Accident the Insurer shall, if the Insured Person is declared legally dead by Order of the Courts, pay the Death Benefit as specified in the Schedule of this Policy on the understanding that if the Insured Person shall subsequently be found to be alive the amount of such Death Benefit shall be refunded to the Insurer.

4.7. Emergency Transportation / Rescue Costs

The Insurer will pay costs and expenses necessarily incurred for emergency transportation, (including air transport), and for freeing, rescuing or otherwise bringing an Insured Person to the nearest place of safety following Accidental Bodily Injury to such an Insured Person.

Should the Insured Person, the Insured Person's team members or family request transport to an alternate distant hospital for social reasons for example, ease of hospital visiting, the Insured Person or the team will be responsible for the costs of the additional ambulance transport to that which would otherwise have been incurred.

Should an Insured Person require ambulance transport from the primary treating hospital to a second hospital for more advanced treatment that is not available at the primary hospital; the costs of the ambulance transfer will be borne by the Insurer. Transfer of an injured Insured Person from the primary treating hospital to a second hospital of a similar level for social reasons however, will not be the responsibility of the Insurer.

Should the Insured Person, the Insured Person's team members or family reject the advice of the Event medical personnel with regard to the need for ambulance transport and decide to transport the injured Insured Person by private transport, the Insurer and the event medical personnel shall not, in any manner, be responsible for any complication that may occur during transport. Further, the official MSA Competitor Self Discharge form must be completed and signed by the competitor, failing which, all benefits under this Policy shall be forfeited.

In certain circumstances, the need for air transport of injured Insured Persons may be required. These circumstances include the type and severity of the injury or injuries and the distance to a definitive care hospital. In such cases the chief medical officer or co-ordinator at the event is authorised by Insurers, at their expense, to request the required air transport for the injured Insured Person but the CMO or CMC must firstly receive verbal authorisation to proceed with the air transfer from MSA's officially appointed medical doctor or, in his / her absence, his / her official deputy.

In the event that an injured Insured Person requires to be transferred from a primary hospital to a second hospital for advanced definitive care by air transport, the identical authorisation procedure must be followed.

In the event that an Insured Person suffers a life threatening injury outside of South Africa and the necessary medical care is not available in the country where the Insured Person is, the policy will pay up R100 000 for Emergency Transportation back to South Africa. Sufficient medical reports will have to be received to show that the Insured Person had a life threatening condition and treatment for the condition was not available in the country where the injury occurred.

Failure to follow the stated authorisation procedure may result in Insurers not accepting liability for such costs incurred.

The maximum benefit payable by Insurers under this Extension is an amount up to R100 000 in respect of any one Insured Person each and every claim.

4.8. Hospital Confinement

If, during the period of insurance, an Insured Person is admitted to Hospital as an in-patient as a result of Accidental Bodily Injury, Insurers will pay the compensation shown below

Compensation

A daily Lump Sum of R2 000 for a period of hospitalisation not longer than 14 days.

Specific Conditions

Insurers will not be liable for the first 72 hours of each and every period of hospitalisation.

4.9. Life Support

The twenty-four (24) month period stated in the Operative Clause herein shall not include any period or periods where the death of an Insured Person is delayed solely by the use, for a period or periods of not less than three (3) consecutive days, of life support machinery, equipment or apparatus.

4.10. Life Support Equipment

The Insurer will, in addition, pay reasonable costs and expenses incurred as a result of Accidental Bodily Injury in respect of hire costs for life support machinery, equipment or apparatus provided that the liability of the Insurer under this Extension in respect of any one Insured Person shall be limited to R 70 000 each and every claim.

4.11. Mobility

When the Insurer has admitted a claim for Permanent disability, if as a direct result of that disability, the Insured Person is permanently dependent on a wheelchair for mobility, the Insurer will, in addition to any amount payable for Permanent Disability, pay for:

- 4.11.1. a self-propelled wheelchair; and/or
 - 4.11.2. the modification of the controls to the Insured Persons motor vehicle;
 - 4.11.3. and, if necessary, the fitting of wheelchair loading equipment and/or alterations to the Insured Persons residence to facilitate the use of such wheelchair.
- up to R150 000 in respect of each and every claim.

4.12. Passive War

This policy extends to include cover in respect of accidental death or disability of an Insured Person arising from acts of “terrorism” as defined in the Defence Act, 1957: provided that the Insurer shall not be liable to pay compensation for death or disablement arising from:

- 4.12.1. the performance by such person of obligations in terms of the Defence Act, 1957 or the South African police Services Act, 1955 at a place from which military or police actions are carried out, or
- 4.12.2. consequent upon such person’s engagement in military or police actions against an enemy of the republic, combating “terrorism” as defined in the Defence Act or “operations in defence of the Republic” as defined in the Defence Act, 1957.

4.13. Permanent Disfigurement

Subject to the exclusion shown below, the following item is added to the Schedule of Compensation:

- 4.13.1. Permanent disfigurement to the combined surface area of the
 - 4.13.1.1. face and neck

less than 100% surface area disfigurement	The proportion of 100% which the actual surface disfigurement bears to 100% surface area disfigurement.
 - 4.13.1.2. remaining parts of the body other than the face and neck

100% surface area disfigurement	50%
less than 100% surface area disfigurement	The proportion of 50% which the actual surface area disfigurement bears to 100% surface area disfigurement.

The Insurer shall not pay under any sub item of this Extension unless the disfigurement exceeds 10% for the sub item under which a claim is lodged.

4.14. Quadriplegia

In the event of Quadriplegia following Bodily Injury, the Insurers will in addition to compensation payable under the Item Permanent Disability under the Schedule of Circumstances and Compensation pay compensation up to 20% of the Permanent Disability benefit up to a maximum of R75 000 any one insured person.

4.15. Rehabilitation Costs

In the event that the Insured demonstrates, to the reasonable satisfaction of the Insurer, that a gainfully employed Insured Person has suffered Permanent Disability (provided that the Permanent Disability is applicable) such that he/she cannot continue in the occupation in which he/she was employed at the time of the Accident but may be retrained by the Insured, or by any registered training centre, the Insurer will contribute 80% (Eighty per cent) of such retraining costs, provided that the maximum amount payable under this Extension by Insurers shall not exceed an amount of R25 000 in respect of each and every claim.

4.16. Repatriation

Should an Insured Person suffer serious Accidental Bodily Injury or die as a result of Accidental Bodily Injury sustained at an Event the Insurer will, in addition to the payment of any other benefit as set forth in the Schedule to this Policy, pay the cost of returning the body of the deceased Insured Person to an appropriate location nearest to where he or she normally resides for burial or the cost of transporting the Injured Person to his/her normal place of residence or most appropriate medical facility as may be required, subject to a maximum amount of R100 000 in respect of each and every claim. This Extension applies on a worldwide basis.

4.17. Search and Rescue Costs

The Insurer will pay reasonable search and rescue costs incurred as a result of, or in order to prevent, Accidental Bodily Injury to any Insured Person provided that:

- 4.17.1. in the event of any Insured Person being found in circumstances which are unlikely to result in Accidental Bodily Injury, any amounts paid or payable by the Insurer shall be refunded to the Insurer;
- 4.17.2. the liability of the Insurer under this extension in respect of any one Insured Person shall be limited to a maximum amount of R10 000 in respect of each and every claim.

4.18. Seatbelt

If there is a valid claim for Death or Permanent Disability (where the percentage of compensation is 100) (provided that Permanent Disability is applicable), as a result of an Accident involving a Private Motor Vehicle in which the Insured Person is an occupant, the Insurers will pay an additional 10% of the compensation payable for such Death or Permanent Total Disability (if applicable), provided that:

- 4.18.1. the Insured Person is wearing a properly fastened, original, factory installed seatbelt at the time of the Accident
- 4.18.2. verification of the actual use of the seat belt at the time of the Accident is included in an official report of the Accident or is certified in writing by the investigating police officer(s)
- 4.18.3. Private Motor Vehicle, as used in this extension, shall mean a self-propelled private motor car with 4 or more wheels, which is of a type both designed and required to be licensed . "Private Motor Vehicle" includes but is not limited to a sedan, station wagon or jeep-type vehicle, designed to seat not more than 9 persons, including the driver but does not include a mobile home or any motor vehicle which is used in mass or public transit.

4.18.4. the maximum amount payable by Insurers will be limited to a maximum amount R50 000 per insured person.

4.19. Temporary Drivers

If, as a result of Accidental Bodily Injury, the Insured person is unable to drive to and from his / her normal place of employment or place of learnership and he / she is otherwise able to continue his / her usual business, occupation or learnership, the Insurer will pay the costs of employing a temporary driver provided that:

4.19.1. such costs will be limited to R 1 000 per week and R 10 000 per annum for each Insured Person.

4.19.2. this Extension will only apply if the Insured Person, prior to the Accident drove a vehicle to and from his/ her place of work or learnership.

4.20. Trauma Counselling

In the event of an Insured person being subjected to an act of Violence at an event organised under the auspices and control of Motorsport South Africa, or any other International Body recognised by Motorsport South Africa, Insurers will reimburse such person for the counselling fees actually incurred by such a person as a result of the act of violence, provided that

4.20.1. the maximum amount payable by Insurers will be R750 per visit and R25 000 per annum for each Insured Person

4.21. Relocation Costs

If the event of Death of or Permanent disability (where insured) resulting from Accidental Bodily Injury of an Insured Person and in the event that it is necessary for the Insured to replace such deceased or permanently disabled Insured Person, the Insurers will indemnify the Insured for:

4.21.1. the relocation costs in respect of the Replacement and their family, furniture and pets; and

4.21.2. 75% of the actual loss caused following the forced sale of the private dwelling of the Replacement subject to such loss being determined by an impartial valuer appointed and paid by the Insurers provided that:

4.21.2.1. the Replacement must move residence more than 100 km;

4.21.2.2. the liability of the Insurers under this extension is limited to an amount of R40 000.

5. Provisos

It is declared and agreed that

- 5.1. The Insurer shall not be liable to pay for Death or Disability resulting from an Accident or series of Accidents arising from one cause in respect of any one Insured Person more than the compensation payable for Death or Permanent Disability (whichever is the higher) plus any compensation payable for Temporary Total Disability or Medical Expenses.
- 5.2. the compensation specified for Temporary Total Disability in respect of each and every claim shall not be payable for more than the number of weeks stated in the Schedule of Circumstances and Compensation and such payment shall cease as soon as the injury causing the incapacity has healed as far as is reasonably possible.
- 5.3. Where amounts recoverable from the Insurer are delayed pending finalisation of any claim, payments on account can be made to the Insured, at the Insurer's discretion on receipt by the Insurer of certification by a medical doctor appointed by the Insurer.
- 5.4. Upon payment of a claim under Items 3.1 to 3.3.4 this policy shall be terminated in respect of the Insured Person for whom such payment is made. This Proviso shall not apply if a payment is made under Item 3.3.2(b).
- 5.5. Notwithstanding that the sums insured, first loss amounts, indemnity limits or insured values, by whatever name such are referred to in this policy (henceforth "policy limits") are expressed on a VAT exclusive basis, and the Insurer agrees that they will indemnify the Insured for any VAT obligation the Insured may incur arising out of any claims settlement made hereunder, subject to the Insurer's maximum liability not exceeding the known Accumulation and/or Per Insured Person Limits as stated in the Schedule.
- 5.6. The Insurer shall not be liable to pay for the costs of Specialised X-ray procedures, (Radiology), under the Medical Expenses Compensation item of this Policy, which includes;

- 6.9. whilst participating in sport as a Professional Sportsperson.
- 6.10. for venereal disease or Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS) or Aids related complex (ARC) howsoever this syndrome has been acquired or may be named.
- 6.11. for any mental and/or nervous disorders or any like condition arising from or attributable to stress or stress-related situations, other than those caused by an Accident following an Event as defined in this Policy.

7. Conditions

This Policy and the Schedule shall be read together as one contract and any word or expression to which a specific meaning has been attached in any part of this Policy or of the Schedule shall bear such specific meaning wherever it may appear.

This Policy will be governed by the laws of the Republic of South Africa, whose courts shall have jurisdiction in any dispute arising hereunder.

- 7.1. After incurring Bodily Injury for which Compensation may be payable under this Policy, the Insured Person shall, when reasonably required by the Insurer so to do, submit to medical examination and undergo any treatment specified. The Insurer shall not be liable to make any payment unless this Condition is complied with to their satisfaction.
- 7.2. This Policy may be cancelled at any time by the Insurer giving 60 days' notice in writing (or such other period as may be mutually agreed) or by the Insured giving immediate notice. From date of cancellation the Insured shall be entitled to refund premium pro rata for the unexpired Period of Insurance, subject to condition 7.13 of the Policy
- 7.3. This Policy is not assignable. Compensation shall be payable only to the Insured whose receipt shall effectually discharge the Insurer.
- 7.4. This Policy shall be voidable in the event of misrepresentation, misdescription or non-disclosure by or on behalf of the Insured or an Insured Person in any particular material to this Insurance.
- 7.5. The Insured and Insured Persons shall take all reasonable precautions to prevent accidents and to comply with all statutory requirements and regulations, including the Safety at Sports and Recreational Events Act No. 2 of 2010, as amended or replaced from time to time
- 7.6. Notice must be given to the Insurer in writing within 30 working days, or as soon as practicable thereafter if the Insured Person is incapacitated from doing so, of any occurrence which may give rise to a claim under this Policy, but in any event within 180 days of such occurrence failing which the claim will prescribe.

All certificates, information and evidence required by the Insurer shall be furnished in the form prescribed and without expense to the Insurer. The Insured Person shall submit to medical examination on behalf of and at the expense of the Insurer as often as shall be required in connection with any claim.

Qualified medical advice shall be sought and followed promptly on the occurrence of any Bodily Injury and the Insurer shall not be liable for any part of any claim which in the opinion of this medical adviser, including the onsite MSA medical staff, arises from the unreasonable or wilful neglect or failure of an Insured Person to seek and remain under the care of a qualified member of the medical profession.

In the event of the Insurer disclaiming liability in respect of any claim and an action or suit not being commenced within twelve months after such disclaimer or, in the case of an arbitration taking place, within twelve months after the Arbitrator shall have made his award, all benefit under this Policy in respect of such claim shall be forfeited.

- 7.7. If any difference shall arise as to the amount to be paid under this Policy (liability being otherwise admitted) such difference shall be referred to arbitration in accordance with the statutory provisions for the time being in force and the making of an award shall be a condition precedent to any liability for the Insurer to make any payment under this Policy.
- 7.8. If any claim under this Policy be in any respect fraudulent or intentionally exaggerated or if any fraudulent means or devices are used by the Insured or anyone acting on his behalf to obtain any benefit under this Policy all benefit in respect of the Insured Person lodging such claim shall be forfeited.
- 7.9. If the consequences of an Accident shall be aggravated by any condition or physical disability of the Insured Person which existed before the Accident occurred, the amount of any compensation payable under this Insurance in respect of the consequences of the Accident shall be the amount which it is reasonably considered would have been payable if such consequences had not been so aggravated.
- 7.10. All premiums and/or claims payable under this policy shall be paid in South African and in South African Rands only.
- 7.11. The premium/s payable under this policy shall be collected by MSA on the basis of their membership and the benefit options selected by its members, which shall be recorded in a schedule and paid over to insurers on a monthly basis.
- 7.12. It is a condition of MSA membership for all of its competitors, marshalls and officials etc., who meet the eligibility criteria to be insured under this policy (other than (WOW) volunteer off-road motorcycling participants).

7.13. The Premium under this Policy is calculated based on the estimated number of all MSA licence holders, marshalls and officials at the inception of the period of insurance, and such premium is payable to Insurers on the basis of a monthly declaration over the period of insurance.

On expiry of the period of insurance the Insured shall declare to the Insurer the actual number of all MSA licence holders, marshall and officials, and accordingly, the appropriate additional premium will be paid to Insurers by the Insured and / or the appropriate refund premium paid back to the Insured.

7.14. Every Insured Person who is involved in an Accident at an Event is required to consult and be attended to by the medical personnel or MSA Representative at the Event and have their names and licence numbers and/or ID Number must be entered on the official MSA Accident Report Form for the Event, immaterial of the severity of the injury, at the time of an Accident.

Insurers reserve the right to refuse a claim from an Insured Person whose name does not appear on the official Accident Report Form for the Event at which the injury is alleged to have occurred.

Permanent Disability (Accident)	Such percentage of R750 000 as is specified for a particular disability
Medical Expenses (Accident)	R600 000

8.4. Premium Rebate Clause

Subject to the renewal of this Policy for a subsequent period of twelve (12) months insurers will provide a premium rebate calculated six (6) months following the renewal on the basis of the undernoted conditions:-

- 8.4.1. the Insured shall make the necessary declaration in terms of Condition 7.13 and the appropriate premium for the period adjusted in accordance therewith;
- 8.4.2. the loss ratio will be calculated by comparing the net premium received (gross premiums less commissions) to the total Losses incurred (total amount of claims paid and estimates of claims yet to be paid, including fees and net of actual and estimated recoveries) at the time;
- 8.4.3. should the loss ratio, as calculated in 8.4.2 be greater than 64%, then, no premium rebate will be due or payable. However if the loss ratio is 64% or less, the amount of premium rebate will be calculated on the following basis:

- (i) If the loss ratio is no greater than 40% - A 30% premium rebate will be allowed
- (ii) If the loss ratio is greater than 40% but less than 50% -A 25% premium rebate will be allowed
- (iii) if the loss ratio is greater than 50% but less than 64% -A 20% premium rebate will be allowed

Further, it is noted and agreed that, in the event of a premium rebate being earned under this policy in a prior period of insurance, following which this policy is renewed, such rebate will be effected by way of an off-set to the premiums required by insurers for the following period of insurance and no individual insured person shall have any direct right or claim hereon.
