MSA NATIONAL KARTING CIRCULAR 2 OF 2019

The following amendment to the National Karting Regulations Version 2 are made with immediate effect:

15. COMPETITORS – ENTRANT REQUIREMENTS

Notwithstanding the provisions of GCR 22, in karting:

- a.) Should a parent or a court appointed legal guardian not be in a position to act as the entrant for his/her minor child, he/she may appoint another parent/legal guardian whose minor child is competing in the same event/s or alternatively an adult competitor competing in the same event (defined for the purposes of this Regulation as “the third party”) to act as the entrant of his/her minor child. Subject to what is set out below, in order for that appointment to be valid, the appointment by the parent/legal guardian must be submitted in writing recording the reasons for the appointment and signed by the parent/legal guardian appointing the third party to the Race Secretary for the relevant event prior to the commencement of the event.
- b.) An adult competitor may appoint another adult competitor competing in the same event to act as his/her entrant. Subject to what is set out below in order for that appointment to be valid, that appointment must be submitted in writing recording the reasons for the appointment and signed by the adult competitor appointing another adult competitor to act on behalf of his/her behalf to the Race Secretary for the relevant event prior to the commencement of the event.
- c.) For the purposes of this Regulation, an adult competitor excludes any person/s or body deemed to be a competitor (as envisaged in GCR 19) as a consequence of being an entrant in terms of GCR 22.
- d.) The Stewards and/or the Clerk of the Course shall be entitled to investigate the reasons why a parent/legal guardian and/or an adult competitor is not in a position to act either for himself/herself or for his/her minor child as an entrant. The Stewards and/or the Clerk of the Course shall in their sole and absolute discretion be entitled to accept and/or reject the appointment of either the third party nominated to act for a minor child or an adult competitor nominated to act for another adult competitor.
