MSA NATIONAL SAES ENDURANCE CHAMPIONSHIP CIRCULAR 01 OF 2018

The following amendments to the National SAES Endurance regulations are made with immediate effect:

2. Events

3. Zwartkops Alfa Romeo 300 Pretoria 4 Hour 9th June 2018

4. Teams and Drivers.

- 4.2. No driver may drive continuously for more than 130 minutes. The 130 minutes includes, as per the drivers transponder, all the time spent either on or off the circuit and either moving or stationary. If the car is stationary in that period it is taken that the driver is in the car. No driver may drive again within 45 minutes of having completed a previous driving session regardless of the duration of the previous session. Only drivers who drive for a minimum of 45 minutes in total during an event will be scored towards the Series.

- 4.3. A driver must drive for a minimum of 45 minutes during the race to qualify as a finisher and to score points.

- 4.6 No driver other than an entered driver may drive an entered car on the circuit at any time during the event. The pit lane is deemed as part of the circuit with the exception of unloading and loading race cars. Failure to comply with this regulation may result in exclusion from the event.

6. Classes

- 6.5 The organisers retain the right to reclass Production Sports & GT cars based on probable Balance of Power and performance factors. The organisers also retain the right to reclassify cars from 6.2 and 6.4 above.

17. Pit Lane

- 17.7 Vehicles leaving the pit area may be assisted with a push by crew if it is attempting to pull off under its own power. The car must be in gear with its engine running at the time.

30 General.

Any on track violation of the regulations during the event may be penalised with immediate effect by the imposition of a "Drive Through" or a "Stop & Go" penalty as determined by the Clerk of the Course. Please refer to GCR175 for clarity.
