

The KZN Branch of the International Association for Impact Assessment South Africa (IAIAsa) cordially invites you to a workshop presented by The IAIAsa KZN Branch in conjunction with the Department of Economic Development, Tourism and Environmental Affairs

“EDTEA - IAIAsa KZN Engagement Session”

22 August 2018, 9:00am—13:00 Venue: Ezemvelo KZN Wildlife: Queen Elizabeth Park, Peter Brown Drive, Pietermaritzburg

Do you have a question for EDTEA?

OUTLINE

The session aims to allow Environmental Practitioners, Stakeholders and Departmental Officials to engage with one another on various aspects of EIA process, general NEMA compliance, legislation and issues which officials or consultants may be experiencing within their respective processes.

EAPs are encouraged to submit any comments, issues or queries on the EIA process and general NEMA compliance in writing to IAIAsa. IAIAsa will collate all comments and queries and a portion of these will be submitted to EDTEA for response.

Kindly provide any comments or queries to the following email addresses no later than close of business on 6 August 2018: patakr@jqafrika.com or jackie@ecinternational.co.za

Directions from Durban to KZN Wildlife Head Office, Queen Elizabeth Park, Montrose

Take the N3 towards Pietermaritzburg
Take the Armitage Road / Bird Sanctuary Road off-ramp (off ramp just before liberty Midlands Mall), and keep left and proceed to Armitage Road

Pass one set of robots (Toyota is on the right)

Drive through the traffic circle passing ABSA bank on the left into Hyslop Road;

After approx 100 metres from the circle (passing KZN traffic licensing offices on the right), take the second right turn into Gough Road, go a short distance and turn right into Howick Road.

Follow Howick road up through the residential area, over two sets of robots, until you come to Athlone traffic circle.
Take the second exit from the traffic circle towards the highway, but take the right hand fork to Montrose / Queen Elizabeth Park (be careful not to go onto highway). This is Peter Browne Drive. Carry on this road for about +/- 4kms passing Victoria Country club on your right, until you reach the entrance gate at Queen Elizabeth Park.

On arrival ask reception for directions to the auditorium.
