

Behold, he cometh with the clouds, and every eye shall see him, and they also that pierced him. And all the tribes of the earth shall bewail themselves because of him.
Even so. Amen.
I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, saith the Lord God, who is, and who was,
and who is to come, the Almighty.

Revelation 1:7–8

Statues or images of Jesus, Mary, the angels and saints, strengthen our faith and help us to synchronise more deeply with them in prayer

30/10/2010 at 22h00

Jesus Christ, Mother Mary

Jesus Christ

My daughter, thank you for sitting with me and my Mother.

My little one, what a beautiful day, full of the Holy Spirit. My daughter, today at my Mother's holy grounds, it was wholesome, full of love. The praising was very powerful. Thank you, my child, today, you sang my favourite song¹. My little one, you must sing more often for me, your Jesus. My child, that song exalts my soul. My pierced heart became so tender, it was like taking a thorn out of my heart. The singing in tongues of fire exalted the praises to me, your Jesus – it went beyond my expectation. You were in my dimension of love. As you were singing, you felt me, my child. Oh, the angels, they were singing as well. What a choir – rebuild around the earth – what a balm enchanted to me!

Thank you for rubbing my feet and for holding my hand. Your heart rejoices when you see one of my statues representing me, for my children to remember me more often. My child, about statues: some of my children don't understand the meaning of statues in my holy temples. They're a symbol of me, of my Mother, the saints and the angels, for my children to remember us more often and to come closer to us. Sometimes, through our statues, we transmit to our children some signs for them to understand, to come closer to us – it's a remembrance, a symbol of our presence. I know some of my people think that my children adore idols, that it's idolism, but it's not. My child, when you are on your mission, you have to explain to some of my children the meaning of having our statues – they symbolise, are an idea of what we look like. Our presence is there². For instance, when you rub our feet and you kiss my heart in that picture, your love that you are bestowing upon us reaches us.

[Fernanda] Sorry, my Jesus, I interrupted our conversation.

My child, I understand that you are feeling very hot. Let's carry on with our conversation.

You just kissed me now. I received these kisses of love from you to me.

All statues of the saints are for my children to know more profoundly about their lives, their good deeds and to have more faith when they pray to them for their intercession to us in heaven. When my children look at their pictures or statues, then my children synchronise more deeply with them. When my children take photos of their loved ones, they treasure them. When they go to eternal life, they keep them, their treasure, and they pass them onto their loved ones. They're respected because they belong to them, their special loved ones. Even pictures of some special friends: you look at them as a reminder or to remember the special moments [shared with them]. When my Mother appears to her visionaries, she leaves her image behind, for it to be painted or to have a statue made in that similarity, for her children to pray and to have an idea of whom they are [requesting] prayers from. Their hearts will be touched through that image.

¹ Fernanda was singing the traditional Portuguese song, Exultai e canta habitantes de Sião (Exult and sing, inhabitants of Zion) together with her own words in English and in tongues.

² When the statue or image has been blessed by a priest. See "God explains the importance of being devoted to Mother Mary and the benefit of getting statues and images of saints blessed by priests" (11/01/2018) in "Conversations" on www.alpha-omega.org.za.

My little one, write everything down, then you can teach my ignorant children. My child, I, your Jesus, get very happy, joyous, when you sing, dance and praise me in front of my image or picture because your heart feels my presence there. I, your Jesus, smile at you, yet you don't see me, but the memory of my picture is always in your heart.

My daughter, my Blessed Mother, she is here to converse with you.

Mother Mary

My daughter, thank you. My little one, I, your Mother Mary, say thank you for this beautiful day and for your conversation with my Son Jesus and me, your Mother Mary.

Today at my holy grounds it was very auspicious, very powerful. It was my joy to see all my children in deep prayer, feeling my Son's living words working in them, my lost sheep. Yes, my child, some healing took place today.

Thank you to you and my daughter Alice and her loved ones, for the help given to my daughter Maria José. All the prayer intercessions dedicated to my Son and me were received in my lap and my Son's huge hands. My daughter Maria José was my immigrant child, like I, myself was an immigrant. I ran from one city to another, then I settled down in the last one – you have been there – in Ephesus. I also stayed in my son John's house. I was happy there until I ascended to heaven. My daughter Maria José, she was one of my children to bring astray, lost sheep to my Son's heart.

My daughter Maria José, I, your Mother, Tabernacle of the Most High, and my Son Jesus, we never leave or forsake our children, especially the ones who care for my Son and me. My child, sometimes the road seems very rough to walk on, but my child, my Son has a reason for every hair that falls out of your head. There is nothing without a purpose, [even] for that hair falling out of your head. In time, my child, you will understand why, the reason. My daughter, remember, this world is only a journey, a passing journey – it's only material, earthly things. When you come to my Son's Kingdom, to eternal life, you cannot bring them [with] to present to my Son.

My Son has a special book for each of his children, which he opens. It has the good deeds, the love bestowed upon my Son, the Holy Trinity and me, his Mother. The forgiveness of your enemies is very important – praying for them is one of the most appreciated by our Father, the merciful God. Unity, love and understanding between families – all these things please my Son and the Father. My little child, here in heaven we see everything. We know your heart. Do not worry about others, what they might think about you. Fear only my Son and love him with all your heart, the Father, the Holy Spirit and his Mother. They are your rock, your pillar of strength to lean on.

My daughter, thank you for all your prayers, Rosaries and love bestowed upon my Son and me. We love you, my child. My Son has mighty work for you – one day at time, in my Son's own time. So, my child, sometimes we permit these things to happen for my children to come closer and closer to my Son Jesus. Trials, tribulations and hardships are all a purification for my Son's Kingdom.

I bless you and your loved ones. I, your *Mãezinha*³, will protect you and your loved ones with my Divine Mantle. Be in my Son Jesus' and my peace. I, your Mother, Tabernacle of the Most High, say thank you for all your hard work done at my Tabernacle of the Most High [holy grounds in] Ngome.

My daughter, my Petal, relay this message of love, appreciation, strength and courage to my daughter.

[Fernanda] Thank you, my dear Mother. I love you. I say thank you for loving us, your sinful children.

I bless you, my little one, and your loved ones and the whole world. Thank you for responding to my call.

Jesus Christ

I, your Jesus, say thank you for your patience, dedication and humility in loving your sister in Christ, in helping her in her time of desperation. My daughter, I know your joy in your heart is to see my daughter Maria José in more peace and understanding of her situation. Oh my child, you love to see all my children happy and joyous. You don't want to see battles, hardships and financial problems – it really hurts you and you wish you could solve all their problems. My little one, I know, if you could, you would help them with their finances. My child, one day you're going to be able to help a lot of my sheep, my flock financially. I know, my child, you would share to spare them from their hardships; you wouldn't even hesitate for one second. I know as well that you don't want praises given to you, but only to me your God, your Lord. All the honour and glory is for your Jesus. My precious child, in time everything will be realised, in my own time.

Oh my Petal, your humble Confession today pleased me. Your humility and sincerity also inebriated my heart. My child, I want you to go to Confession as often as you can. I am there to bless and absolve you. You're doing right – don't worry if some of my children criticise you about it. You're feeling my peace. You see, I took you away from certain places and you feel in your heart that you don't want to go there anymore because your mission is very delicate, very propitious. I don't want anything to disturb the peace, the purification that I, your Jesus, and my Mother have prepared for you [through] all these years.

I give you my peace, my peace I give you, your loved ones, family, friends and all my children.

[Fernanda] Thank you, my loving Jesus. I love you, I praise you and I adore you. I live only for you. My will belongs to you, my Jesus.

Thank you, my humble servant.

[Fernanda] *Sua bênção*⁴, my Holy Trinity, my dear Mother. I love you all.

[23h30]

³ Portuguese to English translation: little Mommy

⁴ Portuguese to English translation: Your blessing