

ALPHA + OMEGA
God's Way Till Eternity

Behold, he cometh with the clouds, and every eye shall see him, and they also that pierced him. And all the tribes of the earth shall bewail themselves because of him.
Even so. Amen.
I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end,
saith the Lord God, who is, and who was,
and who is to come, the Almighty.

Revelation 1:7–8

The Armour of God Prayer and Psalms of Protection

28/07/2016

Charles Pritchard

The Holy Trinity is calling us to pray the Armour of God (Ephesians 6), Psalms and other traditional prayers for protection against evil attacks. The Scriptural prayers below have been prepared from the Latin Vulgate, which is the only authentic translation of the original Scriptures¹. The Douay-Rheims Bible was primarily used in the translation, while some minor contextual changes were made in the context of modern English to align better with the Latin Vulgate.

Our Father God explains how we should pray for protection²:

“I do understand, the times are very crucial as my people are living in fear because of the crimes and robberies of this world. My people are living in fear but only prayers and trusting my Son Jesus Christ [will help]. Praying the holy Rosary and Mother Mary’s Hail Mary are powerful weapons against any attacks of the enemy. My people must keep themselves in prayer with the Armour of God (Ephesians 6), Psalm 91, Psalm 23, the holy Rosary. As Mother Mary explained before, my people must pray at least one Our Father, three Hail Marys and one Glory Be in morning. She promises her protection. Also, the St Michael the Archangel prayer, the Hail Holy Queen and a prayer from the heart as my people are waking up and at night. There are many more prayers to be recited but at least the Our Father, three Hail Marys and the Glory Be, then the enemy can’t get you into your daily life.” (06/10/2018)

The Scriptural prayers are included below. The Douay-Rheims numbering system of the Psalms differs from other translations (which are bracketed). Pray as a family, or if your family members are not with you, include them in your prayers.

Ephesians 6:10–20

Lord God, I humbly pray for your strength and mighty power, your full armour, so that I may be able to stand against the deceits of the devil; for our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against principalities and powers, against the rulers of the world of this darkness, against the spirits of wickedness in high places. I take unto myself the armour of God so that I may be able to resist evil today and stand in all things perfect. Gird my loins with the truth and arm me with the breastplate of justice. Shod my feet with the preparation of the Gospel of peace. In all things give me the shield of faith to extinguish the fiery darts of the evil one. I take unto myself the helmet of salvation and the Sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God; at all times praying and supplicating in the Spirit, watching and offering petitions for all the saints. Give me speech so that I may open my mouth with confidence to make known the mystery of the Gospel, for which I am an ambassador in a chain, so that I may boldly speak as I ought to. Amen.

Psalm 90 (91)

I dwell in the aid of the Most High. I abide under the protection of the God of Jacob. You are my protector and my refuge. My Lord, my God, I trust in you, for you have delivered me from the snare of the hunters and from piercing words. Overshadow me with your shoulders, and under your wings I place my trust. Let your truth compass me with a shield. I am not afraid of the terror of the night, of the arrow that flies in the day, of the business that haunts in the dark, of invasion, or of the noonday devil – it will not come near me, even if a thousand shall fall at my side and ten thousand at my right hand. You will consider with your eyes and see the reward of the wicked, because you, O Lord, are my hope. I have made the Most High my refuge. No harm will come to me, nor will the scourge come near my dwelling, for you have given your angels charge over me to keep me in all your ways. In their hands they will bear me up, lest I dash my foot against a stone. I will walk upon the viper and the basilisk³, and will trample underfoot the lion and the dragon. Because I hoped in you, you will deliver me. You will protect me because I have known your name. I will cry to you, and you will hear me. You are with me in tribulation. You will deliver me, and you will exalt me. You will fill me with length of days, and you will show me your salvation. Amen.

Psalm 22 (23)

The Lord rules over me and there is nothing I shall want. He has set me in a place of pasture. He has brought me up. On the water of refreshment, he has converted my soul. He has led me on the paths of justice for his own name's sake. Even though I should walk in the midst of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me. Your rod and your staff have comforted me. You have prepared a table before me, in face of those who afflict me. You have anointed my head with oil, and my chalice, which inebriates me with your goodness. And your mercy will follow me all the days of my life, so that I may dwell in the house of the Lord for the length of days. Amen.

³ A basilisk refers to a legendary extremely venomous snake-like dragon or reptile with a lethal stare or breath. In this context it refers to an evil spirit, in the same way that the dragon refers to Satan.
