

ALPHA + OMEGA
God's Way Till Eternity

Behold, he cometh with the clouds, and every eye shall see him, and they also that pierced him. And all the tribes of the earth shall bewail themselves because of him.
Even so. Amen.
I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, saith the Lord God, who is, and who was,
and who is to come, the Almighty.

Revelation 1:7–8

God's commandments on burying the dead

Father God, Jesus Christ, Mother Mary

God wants us to bury the dead, not burn the dead. Cremation is not Jesus' will, but if done, it's not a sin, however the ashes need to be buried at a cemetery or placed in a wall of remembrance at a church, not kept at home as an ornament. Scattering of ashes is not accepted in heaven.

Some messages confirming these requests are included here...

Thank you for today, for attending my Holy Mass and for the blessing upon my daughter Natalia's ashes that were put on the wall of remembrance. Yes, my child, the ashes of my children should always be put on the wall of remembrance at the church or cemetery, not scattered elsewhere. This is me, Jesus Christ, who desires it this way. As I have said before in the other messages, it is not a sin for my children to be cremated but also, in the Holy Bible, I said to bury the dead – it does not say burn the dead.

My children fear to go to cemeteries because it's dangerous, but they don't have to go there – the soul, which is more important, is not there anymore. Holy Masses, Rosaries and Divine Mercy Chaplets are more important for the souls of their loved ones, not being there or having a beautiful tomb stone. They can pray for their loved ones at home, at my Son's churches, etc. Yes, if my children are buried, it is obligatory on Holy Saints, Holy Souls day, to visit, but if they can't, they do not sin.

My little Petal, as I have said to you before, I desire for you to be buried, it does please me, your Jesus Christ.

My children were talking about my children being cremated and then keeping the ashes of their loved ones at home, sharing the ashes amongst their loved ones. My children must know, as my Son Jesus has said to you before: cremating my children is not a sin, but the ashes of their loved ones must not be scattered, they must be buried in a cemetery or in the wall of remembrance of the church. They must not keep the ashes at home. It must be at the same time as when it's the funeral and when my children are buried in the cemetery. The ashes are not to be kept at home as an ornament – they have to have the same closure as when they are not cremated but buried.

My children are fearing in these difficult times to go to the cemetery. Oh, they don't need to go: as soon as the funeral is over, the soul is not there anymore, only the body, which will decay very quickly. My children don't have to feel guilty for not going there. What their loved ones need is their prayers for their souls in as much as is possible of their time. Yes, as my Son Jesus has said to you, it's not a sin to be cremated, but it's written in the Holy Bible to bury the dead. Yes, my Son Jesus Christ said that to you, but I want you to be buried, my Andorinha.

Your loved one _____, she was in a dilemma because of the burying of the ashes of her loved one. Thank you for praying and explaining to her about the meaning of not having the ashes of her loved ones at home. Yes, after the death, the Holy Mass on the day of their funeral, they must be buried or if cremated, it's not appropriate to have the ashes for their loved ones at home. Their ashes should be buried in a cemetery or in the wall of remembrance at a church, not kept at home and not to be scattered anywhere. My people must understand that the ashes are not supposed to float on the sea or a river, [or scattered on] any mountain or around the house – this is not received by us in heaven.

My child, my son Piet will be not buried according to my Son Jesus Christ's desire. He will be cremated according to his desire. My Son Jesus Christ asks my children to read in the Holy Bible, to bury the dead, but my children choose other ways. But my child, my children don't sin if they are going to be cremated. As my Son Jesus Christ has said to you, my Son Jesus wants, he desires, you to be buried. There are so many reasons for that. Tell our son Frank that my son Piet will have a decent funeral, a priest to do the service. It's all in my Son's hands, the same way my Son Jesus prepared my son Piet to come to eternal life. He has been saved as my Son Jesus Christ desires, wishes.
