FIM CEV Repsol Moto3™ Junior World Championship

2020 Calendar Update 11 MAY - Catalunya

The ongoing coronavirus pandemic outbreak has already resulted in some modifications to the 2020 FIM CEV Repsol Moto3™ Junior World Championship calendar, namely the postponement of the Algarve and Valencia Rounds. Nevertheless, the FIM CEV Repsol promoters would like to reaffirm that returning to racing in 2020 when it is safe to do so remains a top priority.

For this reason, the Catalunya Round that was due to be held on 13-14 June will be rescheduled, and the FIM CEV Repsol management is making every effort to find a new date in the season for this event.

Whilst the number one focus remains on running the entire 2020 season, all parties involved will always act in accordance with health and safety advice from the relevant governments and health authorities.

About the FIM (www.fim-live.com)

The FIM (Fédération Internationale de Motocyclisme) founded in 1904, is the governing body for motorcycle sport and the global advocate for motorcycling. The FIM is an independent association formed by 112 National Federations throughout the world. It is recognised as the sole competent authority in motorcycle sport by the International Olympic Committee (IOC). Among its 50 FIM World Championships the main events are MotoGP, Superbike, Endurance, Motocross, Supercross, Trial, Enduro, Cross-Country Rallies and Speedway. Furthermore, the FIM is also active and involved in the following areas: public affairs, road safety, touring and protection of the environment. The FIM was the first international sports federation to impose an Environmental Code in 1994.
