FIM Ice Speedway World Championship

2021 Calendar, Update 25 November

Qualifying Round in Sweden Cancelled

Given the ongoing circumstances and restrictions associated with the Coronavirus pandemic, the FIM, the Swedish Motorcycling Federation (SVEMO) and the local organiser regret to announce the cancellation of the FIM Ice Speedway World Championship Qualifying Round originally set to take place on 16 January 2021 in Örnköldsvik, Sweden.

Unfortunately it will not be possible to reschedule the Qualifying Round; all parties continue to monitor the situation and information will be communicated accordingly if further changes to the 2021 Calendar are made.

About the FIM (www.fim-live.com)

The FIM (Fédération Internationale de Motocyclisme) founded in 1904, is the governing body for motorcycle sport and the global advocate for motorcycling. The FIM is an independent association formed by 113 National Federations throughout the world. It is recognised as the sole competent authority in motorcycle sport by the International Olympic Committee (IOC). Among its 50 FIM World Championships the main events are MotoGP, Superbike, Endurance, Motocross, Supercross, Trial, Enduro, Cross-Country Rallies and Speedway. Furthermore, the FIM is also active and involved in the following areas: public affairs, road safety, touring and protection of the environment. The FIM was the first international sports federation to impose an Environmental Code in 1994.
