FIM Long Track World Championship

2021 Calendar UPDATE 03 June

Challenge in Scheessel cancelled

In light of the ongoing situation and restrictions relating to the Coronavirus disease (COVID-19) pandemic, the FIM, the German Motorcycling Federation (DMSB) and the local organiser are forced to cancel the 2021 FIM Long Track World Championship challenge originally set to take place in Scheessel, Germany on 22 August.

All parties involved continue to monitor the situation to reschedule the FIM Long Track Challenge in 2021.

Any further updates to the 2021 calendar will be communicated accordingly.

TBA	DMSB	Final	Mühldorf	Germany

About the FIM (www.fim-moto.com)

The FIM (Fédération Internationale de Motocyclisme) founded in 1904, is the governing body for motorcycle sport and the global advocate for motorcycling. The FIM is an independent association formed by 115 National Federations throughout the world. It is recognised as the sole competent authority in motorcycle sport by the International Olympic Committee (IOC). Among its 50 FIM World Championships the main events are MotoGP, Superbike, Endurance, Motocross, Supercross, Trial, Enduro, Cross-Country Rallies and Speedway. Furthermore, the FIM is also active and involved in the following areas: public affairs, road safety, touring and protection of the environment. The FIM was the first international sports federation to impose an Environmental Code in 1994.
