FIM SnowCross World Championship & Women's SnowCross World Cup

FIM SnowCross World Championship heads to Finland in 2021

Infront Moto Racing and the FIM are delighted to announce that the FIM SnowCross World Championship and FIM Women's SnowCross World Cup will head to Finland in 2021.

The event originally scheduled in 2020 was unfortunately cancelled due of the Coronavirus disease (COVID-19) but the much-awaited snow event will take place on the 9 and 10 April 2021 in Rovaniemi the capital of Lapland in the northern part of Finland.

About the FIM (www.fim-live.com)

The FIM (Fédération Internationale de Motocyclisme) founded in 1904, is the governing body for motorcycle sport and the global advocate for motorcycling. The FIM is an independent association formed by 113 National Federations throughout the world. It is recognised as the sole competent authority in motorcycle sport by the International Olympic Committee (IOC). Among its 50 FIM World Championships the main events are MotoGP, Superbike, Endurance, Motocross, Supercross, Trial, Enduro, Cross-Country Rallies and Speedway. Furthermore, the FIM is also active and involved in the following areas: public affairs, road safety, touring and protection of the environment. The FIM was the first international sports federation to impose an Environmental Code in 1994
