FIM Speedway Grand Prix World Championship

2021 provisional calendar, UPDATE 20 April

2021 Anlas Czech Republic FIM Speedway Grand Prix to Return as Double-Header in July

Due to the ongoing impacts of Covid-19 in Prague, the 2021 Anlas Czech Republic FIM Speedway Grand Prix, scheduled to take place at Marketa Stadium on 5 June, has been postponed and will return as a double-header on 16 and 17 July.

Each night, riders will compete for the maximum 20 points per Grand Prix round.

Additionally, the Speedway Grand Prix event scheduled to take place on 19 June will be moved to later this year, with the date and venue to be confirmed in due course.

The news follows last week's announcement that the FIM and BSI are still committed to running 11 Grand Prix events in 2021, following recent cancellations due to Covid-19 restrictions.

The FIM and BSI are working closely with the Marketa Stadium promoter to stage the July events with restricted audience numbers to allow for social distancing, enhanced safety measures, and in accordance with local health and safety regulations.
