MSA NATIONAL MOTOCROSS CIRCULAR 01 OF 2022

Affected parties are advised, that as envisaged in Article 11 of the 2022 MSA South African National Motocross Regulations, the following rider selection criteria will apply for International events:

- Motocross of African Nations (MXoAN) & Junior Motocross World Championships:
  - Top 5 riders per class, dependent on age and motorcycle capacity eligibility as per the relevant championship regulations, after Round 3 of the 2022 MSA South African National Motocross Championship, to be held at Bloemfontein (14th May 2022);
  - Reserve riders shall be discussed closer to the time by the Motocross Commission;
  - Riders must be in possession of an MSA National Motocross licence for 2022.
- Rider selection – Motocross of Nations (MXoN):
  - Team selection shall be at the sole discretion of the MSA Motocross Commission and will be based on performance at the 2022 MSA South African National Motocross Championship rounds and/or international participation.
  - Round 1 to 3 of the 2022 MSA South African National Motocross Championship will be taken into consideration for local riders.

All Riders are reminded that they must be in possession of a valid South African passport in order to be eligible for selection.

Riders selected for the team/s need to ensure that they are self-funded / self-sponsored to attend and participate in the abovementioned event/s.
