The Need to create an Ethical Corporate Culture

CIGFARO is inviting you to attend an online webinar on the Need to Create an Ethical Corporate Culture in the Municipal Environment which is more than mere Legislative Compliance. The serious scandals and organizational failures of the last decade in the private and public sector that stem from corruption, conflict of interest, bribery, favoritism, nepotism, maladministration, and other wrongdoings, have emphasized the need to focus on corporate values and achieve more ethical organizations by recruiting leaders and managers with integrity.

OBJECTIVE

This Webinar is aimed at highlighting important issues relating to an integrity-based approach to ethics management, corporate governance, the importance of applying the King IV Code Corporate Governance Principles, and steps to improve the ethical culture in the workplace.
